

The Intelligencer.

Office: Nos. 25 and 27 Fourteenth Street.

The late William of Orange seems to be a live issue in Ireland.

Is there any more Wheeler bring them on. They "do good by stealth."

Remember this! Aye, too Dear Park, while memory holds a seat, &c.—Grover Cleveland.

Is this the voice of Protestantism crying in the streets of Belfast, "To hell with the Pope?" God forbid.

Civil Service reform always stirs up the enmity of the House. The fanatical purpose is to talk to death what is left of it.

It seems that the Irish Loyalists were in for a row anyhow, home rule or no home rule. They are not showing to good advantage.

Denney is not hard to believe of Chicago alchemists. When they catch a corrugated "tough" out there they make an alderman of him to keep him out of the penitentiary.

Let us hope that Mr. Wheeler, of Alabama, has learned something since he had the rare privilege of sitting at the feet of Judge Kelley. There are men who begin late in life to learn.

In Washington they are telling a story of a West Virginia Congressman who left his false teeth in a brandy snash. The orthodox West Virginian leaves nothing in his brandy snash.

They are unwise and wanton who are trying to fan the sectarian flame in Ireland. Parnell, the Protestant, is not plotting the enslavement nor the butchery of the Protestants of Ulster.

McDermott Maxwell is disgusted with the American jury system. He will do to reserve some of his disgust for our hanging system, which he is about to explore to the length of his rope.

There hasn't been anything of particular moment going on at Deer Park, but while it lasted the correspondents telegraphed 300,000 words, idle words. But the people read it all and yearned for more.

Now we shall see whether Lord Salisbury will start an "assisted emigration" movement to rid Ireland of the turbulent Loyalists. Is there is cause for the goose ought to be sauce for the gander, doncher know.

The misguided prohibitionist who is assaulting Francis Murphy ought to be reminded that the man who takes most liberties with the truth is not always the most useful citizen. At the same time, we think Mr. Murphy can stand it.

At last accounts the memory of Edwin M. Stanton was intact. And General Wheeler is to be thanked for unwittingly bringing out a letter which increases the country's regard for the patriot who wore out his life in the service of the Union.

The late Prof. Darling, of New York, wrote to his own true love, Mrs. Amelia Delacour: "I send you a gallon of pure love, pure as the honey I sent, and a thousand and one kisses." If that honey happened to be glucose, then the gallon of love was not Pure Love.

WHEELING REID, the able editor of the great New York Tribune, while passing through Pittsburgh was caught in the act of trying conclusions with a railroad sandwich. Now we know who does not write those beautiful Tribune articles on the pathetic side of life. A man is what he eats.

The man who desires to be let alone by the reporters moves through the world as though nothing had happened and just as if he didn't care who knew it. This may throw the sleuth-hounds of the press off the scent. It is the flaming awful mystery that sets the boys wild and drives them to do and dare.

No comcomment of the Wheeling Female College has been more successful from every point of view than that of last night. The essays struck a high average and the graduates bore general testimony to careful training. The College has taken a new lease of life and bids fair to more than sustain the reputation of its best days.

"Philippine Democrat" has some views concerning the Hon. Henry G. Davis and the Treasury portfolio. The Intelligencer is always glad to hear from this good Democratic friend, but would not like to be suspected of being in a conspiracy to give Mr. Cleveland a second term. There are other Democratic friends who would not relish that, and we must endeavor to preserve harmony in the party.

Mr. POWDERLY wrongs himself to say that under Jay Gould's instructions the Associated Press has lost no opportunity to misrepresent and malign him. The Associated Press has been at his service to convey promptly to the public anything he desired to say. [For several months past nothing has occupied so much space in the Associated Press as the movements of Mr. Powderly and his order.

The Associated Press has said that Mr. Powderly was close-pressed in the Cleveland convention and did not achieve a complete victory. Is not this true? The Home Club element gave him trouble and worked some of its own into positions very near to Mr. Powderly. Almost without exception the Associated Press newspapers have wished Mr. Powderly to triumph, believing that he means to do what is right.

Mr. Powderly ought to know that Mr. Gould has no control over the Associated Press, and can no more order its movements than Mr. Powderly can. The Associated Press sends its news over the Western Union Telegraph lines and pays well for what it gets. It has no other connection, immediate or remote, with Jay Gould, and does not feel itself in any danger of being throttled by him. The world's greatest newsgatherer is able to stand alone and does it.

A BLOODY RIOT.

By the Mad Loyalists of Belfast, Ireland.

Ten Persons are Slain in a Fierce Conflict.

Between the Police and the Drink Crazed Mob.

Taverns Gutted and Burned and Houses Attacked.

Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Parnell Burned in Effigy.

And the Lawless Men and Women Take the Town.

And Make in the Fair City a Reign of Terror.

An Insane and Cautelous Carnival of Crime.

BELFAST, June 9.—The Orangemen are again rioting here to-day. They have wrecked one hundred houses in the city, two of which they burned. The rioters have broken into several whisky stores and possessed themselves of the contents. Numbers of the men are lying in the gutters drunk. Others, made desperate and unaided by drink, are prowling about the streets crying out: "To hell with the Pope!"

In the various assaults made by the police upon the rioters, 25 of the latter have already been severely wounded by the buckshot fired at them. The police have been ordered to fire ball to-night in the event of any general renewal of the rioting.

A TAVERN BARRICKED.

Last night a mob of Orangemen made an attack upon the tavern kept by a Catholic named Duffy. The police were promptly on the scene, and after a stubborn contest, during which they used their carbines to drive the mob away in disorder, the rioters assembled in increased strength and again attacked Duffy, this time overpowering the police and driving them from the place.

In the first assault chief of police Carring was wounded. He was carried away and now lies in a critical condition. When the Orangemen returned to the fight they were accompanied by a large number of fiery spirits, who goaded and shamed the mob to battle and formed a most dangerous element.

When the officers abandoned Duffy the mob at once took complete possession of the tavern. It was at once thoroughly sacked. All the tape and spigots were torn down and every one was invited to help himself according to his taste. All the barrels of liquor found in stock were carried into the street, lifted up high and let fall until they broke and liberated their contents. All the furniture was carried out, piled in the centre of the roadway and burned in a pile to furnish the rioters with light during their debauch.

A SHOCKING ORIGIN.

Many girls drank until they fell helpless in the gutters, the girls acting with greater fury during the earlier stages of the orgie than the men. The noise, the profanity, the disorder, were terrible. The mob ended their work here by firing the tavern itself, and it burned to the ground. Then the stronger men, who had become infuriated, and not overpowered, by their potations, ran through the streets wrecking and pillaging wherever they went, and increasing their following the further they proceeded.

These rioters after awhile congregated around the police station, and stoned the place until they were tired. They then marched to another tavern.

THE POLICE OVERPOWERED.

The police hastened here in advance and attempted to protect the property, but they were overpowered and driven away. The mob left in possession treated the tavern as they had treated Duffy's—turned on all the full taps, broke the full barrels in the street, made a bonfire of the furniture, and finally burned the place to the ground. The police returned, and this time got the better for a time of the mob, whose ranks were depleted by scores who had fallen in drunkenness, and extinguished the flames before they could gain control of the structure. But the officers were unable to drive the rioters from the locality and they remained around until morning.

BURNED IN EFFIGY.

During the rowdiness of the night, Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Parnell were both burned in effigy, and a dummy corpse labelled "Home Rule" cremated.

Two men named Hart and Mason were arrested to-day for the murder of Thomas Gallagher, who was shot dead last night during the rioting. Gallagher was a well known local simpson. He was a native of the United States, and a Home Ruler. During the riot the situation at one time became so desperate that Mr. Mathers, a local Orange leader, publicly declared that unless the authorities did their duty he would lead a thousand men to the rescue. He was charged with the murder of Gallagher, who was shot dead last night during the rioting. The coroner's jury found that Gallagher died from the effects of gunshot wounds, and censured the authorities for not having sufficient police to preserve order.

A FRESH OUTBREAK.

The rioting was again renewed here this evening, and the Riot act was again read. The mob increased in size and began throwing stones at the police. The latter fired, killing four persons, one of whom was a bar maid who was looking out of a tavern window at the fighting. The mob returned the fire and a brick ballade was kept up for twenty minutes.

Soldiers are now parading the streets to assist the police in case of necessity. The tavern of the Catholic priest, who was burned last night, and the negro again set on fire. The British war ship Lily has been ordered to Conception Bay.

No Railways for China.

VIENNA, June 9.—The Neue Presse publishes a letter from Sir Robert Hart, the Inspector of Chinese Imperial Customs, to Austrian Consul Scherzer, at Genoa, in which the former denies that the Chinese Government intends to construct a railway, and says that there will be no opening in China for some time to come for such an enterprise.

Against Free Masonry.

QUEBEC, June 9.—It is understood that a collective letter from the Bishops of the Province, lately in Council here, will soon be published against Free Masonry; also, that among the decrees adopted by the Council is one relative to the giving or taking of bribes at elections. Roman Catholics who accuse themselves in confession of these offenses, cannot get absolution from an ordinary priest, but will have to apply to the bishop of their diocese, as in a case of perjury.

Retaining the Police.

DUBLIN, June 9.—One hundred and fifty policemen have left this city for Belfast to reinforce the police there.

An Infernal Machine.

ARMAGH, June 9.—An infernal machine consisting of a can filled with a black substance and some clock-work was thrown last night against the door of a Protestant house in Lurgan, County Armagh. When

CIVIL SERVICE TALK.

IN THE HOUSE AT WASHINGTON.

At Yesterday's Committee Session—A Night Part Debate on a "Bitter" of the Appropriation Bill in Relation to the Commissioners—Randall on Grover.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—To-day, the House being in Committee of the Whole on the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill, with Mr. Blount, of Georgia, in the chair, Mr. Compton, of Maryland, defended the civil service feature of the bill, and he expressed his admiration for the courage of the Committee on Appropriations in placing the provision in the pending bill. In announcing his opposition to the rules adopted by the Civil Service Commission he gave voice to the sentiments of the people he represented. He yielded to no man, high or low, in office or out of office, in the entertainment of an honest, earnest and sincere desire for the thorough, economical and honest administration of the civil service of the government, but this, he argued, was not accomplished by the existing civil service law. The law had been a case of "Heads, I win; tails, you lose." In case of Republican success that party was to have the law and the offices; in case of Democratic success, that party was to have the law without the offices.

Mr. Gladstone, who had been invited to the House of Commons of the Government's intention to appeal to the country, after obtaining the necessary votes of supply to tide over the elections, Parliament will probably be dissolved on June 24. The event of the coming elections, regarding the prospects of the liberals in the coming elections owing to a great dearth of funds and suitable candidates. Messrs. Arnold, Morley and Schindler are unflinching in their efforts to overcome the difficulty. Herbert Gladstone in a speech at the opening of a Liberal club at Rochester to-day predicted that the Home Rule bill now dead would revive into vigorous life.

Extensive police precautions have been taken at the east end of London, where trouble is feared. A full supply of detectives has been stationed to protect railway depots, river suburbs, the Tower and other places, and all strangers are narrowly scrutinized. It is openly stated that a Fenian plot is hatching, the outcome of the recent political events.

The Harrington Whigs have held a conference and decided to organize with the partial assistance of the Conservatives a party to act in opposition to Home Rule candidates during the coming elections.

Mr. Henry Labouchere is busily engaged in forming a radical party to oppose Mr. Chamberlain and his methods during the impending parliamentary contest. Mr. Labouchere invites the Radical Union to send a delegation to enter Parliament to write to him. A telegraph message was received this afternoon from the Queen by Mr. Gladstone. It is understood to contain Her Majesty's sanction for the dissolution of Parliament.

Stories of a Conservative and Liberal agents are in London consulting with the whips of their respective parties. Mr. Gladstone insists that every constituency shall be provided with a Home Rule candidate. He relies upon the radical and liberal members of the House of Commons to provide zealous men. The government will endeavor to dissolve Parliament on the 24th inst. or even at an earlier date if the House expedite necessary business. An early dissolution is desired in order that the elections may not interfere with harvest work.

The Work of Landlords.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The following is self explanatory:

DUBLIN, June 9.

Mr. Patrick Ford, New York:

I received your remittance of five hundred pounds sterling for the relief of the distressed people of Ireland, and will leave for the islands of the west coast tomorrow to investigate and report upon the present condition of the famine stricken there.

The Orange ruffianism in the north of Ireland is the worst plague of Ireland and the English Tories. Don't encourage retaliatory measures. Patience was never more needed than at the present time. Victory is certain if the Irish race throughout the world will stand united and calmly persevere on the present line.

MICHAEL DAVITT.

Greeting from A. O. H.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 9.—The State Division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians is in session in this city. Delegates are present from all sections of the State and the convention is considered one of the most important held for many years. The following cable was sent to Mr. Parnell last night:

"Bid Ireland be of good hope. Let the Irish Nationalists stand firmly by their colors. The Ancient Order of Hibernians has assembled, pledged their kindred in Ireland united and generous support until Irish National independence is secured. God haste the day."

A Social Scandal?

St. Louis, June 9.—The Pon Dispatch published a sensational cable dispatch to-day, claiming that Parnell, the great Irish leader, has been involved in a social scandal, and that it is owing to this fact that O'Shea, one of the Nationalists, failed to vote for the Home Rule measure in Commons on Tuesday morning.

Bread Riots Threatened.

St. JOHN, N. F., June 9.—Bread riots are threatened in Conception Bay. Crowds of unemployed men are parading the streets. The police with rifle and fixed bayonets so far have prevented looting. The British war ship Lily has been ordered to Conception Bay.

No Railways for China.

VIENNA, June 9.—The Neue Presse publishes a letter from Sir Robert Hart, the Inspector of Chinese Imperial Customs, to Austrian Consul Scherzer, at Genoa, in which the former denies that the Chinese Government intends to construct a railway, and says that there will be no opening in China for some time to come for such an enterprise.

Against Free Masonry.

QUEBEC, June 9.—It is understood that a collective letter from the Bishops of the Province, lately in Council here, will soon be published against Free Masonry; also, that among the decrees adopted by the Council is one relative to the giving or taking of bribes at elections. Roman Catholics who accuse themselves in confession of these offenses, cannot get absolution from an ordinary priest, but will have to apply to the bishop of their diocese, as in a case of perjury.

Retaining the Police.

DUBLIN, June 9.—One hundred and fifty policemen have left this city for Belfast to reinforce the police there.

An Infernal Machine.

ARMAGH, June 9.—An infernal machine consisting of a can filled with a black substance and some clock-work was thrown last night against the door of a Protestant house in Lurgan, County Armagh. When

CIVIL SERVICE TALK.

IN THE HOUSE AT WASHINGTON.

At Yesterday's Committee Session—A Night Part Debate on a "Bitter" of the Appropriation Bill in Relation to the Commissioners—Randall on Grover.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—To-day, the House being in Committee of the Whole on the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill, with Mr. Blount, of Georgia, in the chair, Mr. Compton, of Maryland, defended the civil service feature of the bill, and he expressed his admiration for the courage of the Committee on Appropriations in placing the provision in the pending bill. In announcing his opposition to the rules adopted by the Civil Service Commission he gave voice to the sentiments of the people he represented. He yielded to no man, high or low, in office or out of office, in the entertainment of an honest, earnest and sincere desire for the thorough, economical and honest administration of the civil service of the government, but this, he argued, was not accomplished by the existing civil service law. The law had been a case of "Heads, I win; tails, you lose." In case of Republican success that party was to have the law and the offices; in case of Democratic success, that party was to have the law without the offices.

Mr. Gladstone, who had been invited to the House of Commons of the Government's intention to appeal to the country, after obtaining the necessary votes of supply to tide over the elections, Parliament will probably be dissolved on June 24. The event of the coming elections, regarding the prospects of the liberals in the coming elections owing to a great dearth of funds and suitable candidates. Messrs. Arnold, Morley and Schindler are unflinching in their efforts to overcome the difficulty. Herbert Gladstone in a speech at the opening of a Liberal club at Rochester to-day predicted that the Home Rule bill now dead would revive into vigorous life.

Extensive police precautions have been taken at the east end of London, where trouble is feared. A full supply of detectives has been stationed to protect railway depots, river suburbs, the Tower and other places, and all strangers are narrowly scrutinized. It is openly stated that a Fenian plot is hatching, the outcome of the recent political events.

The Harrington Whigs have held a conference and decided to organize with the partial assistance of the Conservatives a party to act in opposition to Home Rule candidates during the coming elections.

Mr. Henry Labouchere is busily engaged in forming a radical party to oppose Mr. Chamberlain and his methods during the impending parliamentary contest. Mr. Labouchere invites the Radical Union to send a delegation to enter Parliament to write to him. A telegraph message was received this afternoon from the Queen by Mr. Gladstone. It is understood to contain Her Majesty's sanction for the dissolution of Parliament.

Stories of a Conservative and Liberal agents are in London consulting with the whips of their respective parties. Mr. Gladstone insists that every constituency shall be provided with a Home Rule candidate. He relies upon the radical and liberal members of the House of Commons to provide zealous men. The government will endeavor to dissolve Parliament on the 24th inst. or even at an earlier date if the House expedite necessary business. An early dissolution is desired in order that the elections may not interfere with harvest work.

The Work of Landlords.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The following is self explanatory:

DUBLIN, June 9.

Mr. Patrick Ford, New York:

I received your remittance of five hundred pounds sterling for the relief of the distressed people of Ireland, and will leave for the islands of the west coast tomorrow to investigate and report upon the present condition of the famine stricken there.

The Orange ruffianism in the north of Ireland is the worst plague of Ireland and the English Tories. Don't encourage retaliatory measures. Patience was never more needed than at the present time. Victory is certain if the Irish race throughout the world will stand united and calmly persevere on the present line.

MICHAEL DAVITT.

Greeting from A. O. H.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 9.—The State Division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians is in session in this city. Delegates are present from all sections of the State and the convention is considered one of the most important held for many years. The following cable was sent to Mr. Parnell last night:

"Bid Ireland be of good hope. Let the Irish Nationalists stand firmly by their colors. The Ancient Order of Hibernians has assembled, pledged their kindred in Ireland united and generous support until Irish National independence is secured. God haste the day."

A Social Scandal?

St. Louis, June 9.—The Pon Dispatch published a sensational cable dispatch to-day, claiming that Parnell, the great Irish leader, has been involved in a social scandal, and that it is owing to this fact that O'Shea, one of the Nationalists, failed to vote for the Home Rule measure in Commons on Tuesday morning.

Bread Riots Threatened.

St. JOHN, N. F., June 9.—Bread riots are threatened in Conception Bay. Crowds of unemployed men are parading the streets. The police with rifle and fixed bayonets so far have prevented looting. The British war ship Lily has been ordered to Conception Bay.

No Railways for China.

VIENNA, June 9.—The Neue Presse publishes a letter from Sir Robert Hart, the Inspector of Chinese Imperial Customs, to Austrian Consul Scherzer, at Genoa, in which the former denies that the Chinese Government intends to construct a railway, and says that there will be no opening in China for some time to come for such an enterprise.

Against Free Masonry.

QUEBEC, June 9.—It is understood that a collective letter from the Bishops of the Province, lately in Council here, will soon be published against Free Masonry; also, that among the decrees adopted by the Council is one relative to the giving or taking of bribes at elections. Roman Catholics who accuse themselves in confession of these offenses, cannot get absolution from an ordinary priest, but will have to apply to the bishop of their diocese, as in a case of perjury.

Retaining the Police.

DUBLIN, June 9.—One hundred and fifty policemen have left this city for Belfast to reinforce the police there.

An Infernal Machine.

ARMAGH, June 9.—An infernal machine consisting of a can filled with a black substance and some clock-work was thrown last night against the door of a Protestant house in Lurgan, County Armagh. When

THE LABOR UNIONS.

THE AMALGAMATED ASSOCIATION.

Of Iron and Steel Workers and International Typographical Association in Session at Pittsburgh—A Mistake in the Former's Scale is Discovers.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 9.—The Wage Committee of the Amalgamated Association and the committee representing the manufacturers was in session to-day at the rooms of the Iron Association.

The scale as submitted is the same which has been in operation during the past year, with some modifications rendered necessary by the changes in the process of manufacture. The nailers' scale is included. It is the general opinion, although the conference is still in progress, that the manufacturers will agree to the scale as submitted, and that it will be signed to-morrow. The Amalgamated Association held a session this morning, but the business was of no public interest.

The conference between the two committees came to a sudden termination this afternoon, several important reports having been discovered in the printed scales submitted. An adjournment was ordered until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

During the afternoon a lodge of nailers was organized, and a delegate was elected to the Amalgamated Association convention, and he took his seat at once. The association in recognition of the fact that nearly all of its wage troubles come from the constant change in the scale, has decided to appoint an organizer to take charge of the matter of organization there. The association will make a strong effort to organize this part of the country, as it has been secured by the western manufacturers, and the scale change against the nailers' difficulty would not be so frequent nor the contests so long and bitter.

The Printers' Union.

PITTSBURGH, June 9.—The morning session of the International Typographical Union was occupied in receiving resolutions and memorials, which were read and referred to appropriate committees without debate. A very large number of memorials were received opposing consolidation with the Knights of Labor. This subject was made a special order for 3 o'clock this afternoon, when an executive session was held. There is no doubt of the defeat of any movement looking toward the consolidation of the two unions.

At the opening of the afternoon session the question of the use of stereotyped plates matter was taken up and referred to a committee of nine, who will report before the final adjournment. The flood of new resolutions, constitutional changes, memorials, etc., which were begun on Tuesday was renewed, and probably more papers were filed for the consideration of the committees than at any former convention. Among the important ones were amendments to the constitution and Treasurer held office three years; the giving of district conventions; to abolish the office of Chief Organizer, his duties to be performed by the President with a stated salary; requiring the executive officers to be elected in the sum of $10,000, and a long memorial from the German-American Typographical Union to the International Typographical Union. The stated business at 3 p. m., was the consideration of aid to unions in financial distress and to convalescent laborers of the "Printers' Protective Union." An order of non-union men.

It was decided to send $500 to the Union at Jacksonville, Fla., $500 to Kansas City, $500 to Topeka, Kansas, $500 to New Haven, Conn., and $500 to San Antonio, Texas. The non-union matter was laid over for consideration later, and the convention adjourned for committee work.

Powerfully Resigned.

PHILADELPHIA, June 9.—Secretary Turner, of the Knights of Labor, says the talk about opposition to Mr. Powderly is nonsense. He can be General Master, or he can be long as he likes, so great is the respect of the members for him. Mr. Turner said that on account of the pressure of duties and the unjust attacks made upon Mr. Powderly, the latter had offered his resignation in writing to the General Assembly, and would not accept his resignation, and others were made to increase the General Master's salary from $1,500 to $3,000, and to draw $5,000. After much persuasion, Mr. Powderly was induced to resign, and to draw his resignation, but would not accept the increase offered.

War on the Knights of Labor.

READING, Pa., June 9.—Thomas A. Wilson & Co., spectacle manufacturers, employing 240 hands, have posted a notice that all Knights of Labor in their factory should either leave the order or consider themselves discharged. About twenty employees, all girls and women, are affected by the mandate. A large number continued to leave the Knights, saying that they had brothers and fathers who were already out of work through labor troubles. The others who refused to withdraw have been paid off and left the shop.

Kanawha Miners Quit Work.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 9.—The Kanawha Mining Company's men quit work at noon to-day, and held a meeting this afternoon, to decide whether they will go out on a general strike. This will change the coaling station on the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad from the lower division of the road, as all trains loaded with coal will be stopped there.

Strikes Ended.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 9.—The employees of a number of furniture factories who struck recently for eight hours' work with ten hours' pay returned to work to-day at the old wages and hours. A general resumption is expected in a few days. The strike of the journeyman painters, which was inaugurated about May 1, has been compromised and work will be resumed at once.

Boycotting Canadian Fish.

BOSTON, June 9.—The fishermen are organizing an association to boycott Canadian fish sent by rail, and to prevent them landing at any season. Spies will be sent to Canadian shipping points, and $50,000 for their expenses, etc., has been contributed. They will give the government one month in which to settle the difficulties, and will then take it into their own hands.

The Dow Law to be Tested.

CINCINNATI, O., June 9.—A test case is intended to get an opinion from the Supreme Court upon the constitutionality of the Dow law for taxation of saloons has been very quietly made up here at the instance of the Police Commissioners, and is now ready for presentation to the Supreme Court.

No Fight.

CINCINNATI, June 9.—Mayor Smith has announced his intention to prevent the glove contest at Chetler Park Saturday, between Jack Burke and Pete Nolan.

Two French men-of-war, with troops aboard, have left New Caledonia with sealed orders, for the New Hebrides island.

THE LABOR UNIONS.

THE AMALGAMATED ASSOCIATION.

Of Iron and Steel Workers and International Typographical Association in Session at Pittsburgh—A Mistake in the Former's Scale is Discovers.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 9.—The Wage Committee of the Amalgamated Association and the committee representing the manufacturers was in session to-day at the rooms of the Iron Association.

The scale as submitted is the same which has been in operation during the past year, with some modifications rendered necessary by the changes in the process of manufacture. The nailers' scale is included. It is the general opinion, although the conference is still in progress, that the manufacturers will agree to the scale as submitted, and that it will be signed to-morrow. The Amalgamated Association held a session this morning, but the business was of no public interest.

The conference between the two committees came to a sudden termination this afternoon, several important reports having been discovered in the printed scales submitted. An adjournment was ordered until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

During the afternoon a lodge of nailers was organized, and a delegate was elected to the Amalgamated Association convention, and he took his seat at once. The association in recognition of the fact that nearly all of its wage troubles come from the constant change in the scale, has decided to appoint an organizer to take charge of the matter of organization there. The association will make a strong effort to organize this part of the country, as it has been secured by the western manufacturers, and the scale change against the nailers' difficulty would not be so frequent nor the contests so long and bitter.

The Printers' Union.

PITTSBURGH, June 9.—The morning session of the International Typographical Union was occupied in receiving resolutions and memorials, which were read and referred to appropriate committees without debate. A very large number of memorials were received opposing consolidation with the Knights of Labor. This subject was made a special order for 3 o'clock this afternoon, when an executive session was held. There is no doubt of the defeat of any movement looking toward the consolidation of the two unions.

At the opening of the afternoon session the question of the use of stereotyped plates matter was taken up and referred to a committee of nine, who will report before the final adjournment. The flood of new resolutions, constitutional changes, memorials, etc., which were begun on Tuesday was renewed, and probably more papers were filed for the consideration of the committees than at any former convention. Among the important ones were amendments to the constitution and Treasurer held office three years; the giving of district conventions; to abolish the office of Chief Organizer, his duties to be performed by the President with a stated salary; requiring the executive officers to be elected in the sum of $10,000, and a long memorial from the German-American Typographical Union to the International Typographical Union. The stated business at 3 p. m., was the consideration of aid to unions in financial distress and to convalescent laborers of the "Printers' Protective Union